

Paragraph Hand Writing

the National Memorial

The National Memorial is a monument (monument) which stands for the immeasurable (unmeasurable) sacrifice of the millions of martyrs (martyrs) who laid down (gave up) their lives for the liberation of Bangladesh. The National Memorial is at Savar. The foundation of it was laid on the first anniversary (anniversary) of the Victory Day. It is a symbol of the nation's respect for the martyrs of the War of Liberation. It is 150 feet tall and stands on a base measuring 130 feet wide. There is a series of 7 towers that rise by stages to a height of 150 feet. The proposed complex covers an area of 126 acres. The plan of this complex includes a mosque, a library and a museum. The relics (relics) of the liberation war will be kept in the museum. The most moving sight of the complex is the several graves of the martyred freedom fighters. The National Memorial encourages us to live in honour and dignity (honour and dignity) amongst the nations of the world. standing before the monument we show our heartiest respect to the freedom fighters on the every 26th March and the 16th December.

moonlit night

A moonlit night is really charming and enjoyable. It presents a beautiful sight. It dazzles our eyes and soothes our hearts. In a moonlit night the moon looks like a disk of silver. The moon bathes the whole world with her silvery light. The watery places means canals and rivers and tanks seem to smile in a moonlit night. The whole nature looks bright and appears in ~~eternal~~ ^{celestial} light. People of all age enjoy a moonlit night. Young boys plays and little boys and girls make merry and amuse themselves. A moonlit night is really enjoyable to a newly married couple. Men and women of middle age can not come out of doors. They pass some hours in gossiping and story telling and enjoy the night. Poets of all languages have sung highly of a moonlit night. Even lower animals come out at moonlit night and little insects also fly here and there. A moonlit night is pleasure for us. A moonlit night is earned a really natural charm for us for refreshing our mind.

Jewel's Care Hand Note

International Mother Language Day.

The 21st February is a red-letter day in our national and international life. For our nation, it is a day of great historical importance. This is greatly important for every one of us because of its significance for our mother tongue 'Bangla' that we speak today. This day has a very significant historical background. On this day of 1952, our great Language movement took place. This day reminds us of the struggle. Many brave children of our country laid down their lives and defended our mother tongue in exchange of their blood. This day has given us the freedom to speak in our mother tongue. Salam, Barkat, Rafique, Shafique and many others were the heroes of this day. Their sacrifice and struggle have now brought international recognitions for our nation as well as for our "Bangla Bhasha". (UNESCO, ^{and} UN ~~body~~ has recognized the 21st February as the International Mother Language Day.) (And this is because of their sacrifice.) Now this day is celebrated throughout the whole world. People of the whole world observe this day as International Mother Language Day.

Our school Library.

A library is a collection of books for reading or borrowing. Every school has a library. Our school has also a library. It is a part and parcel of our school life. It is situated on the first floor in our school building. As a result, a huge amount of air can enter into the library. There are various types of books in our school library. There are also many in number. The librarian of the library is very dutiful. He maintains the library properly. He always follows the discipline of it. The librarian does his duties regularly and sincerely. Our school library is very helpful to both students and teachers. If a student fails to understand any topics of his text books, he can easily solve it in the school library. He can also prepare better notes for his subjects by taking help of different books. Besides the students also acquire knowledge about many other things of national and international by reading books in the library. School library is very useful to the poor students. The library is also necessary for the teachers. It helps them to prepare themselves for teaching. So, our school library is very useful to both students and teachers.

Arsenic problem

Jewel's Care Hand Note

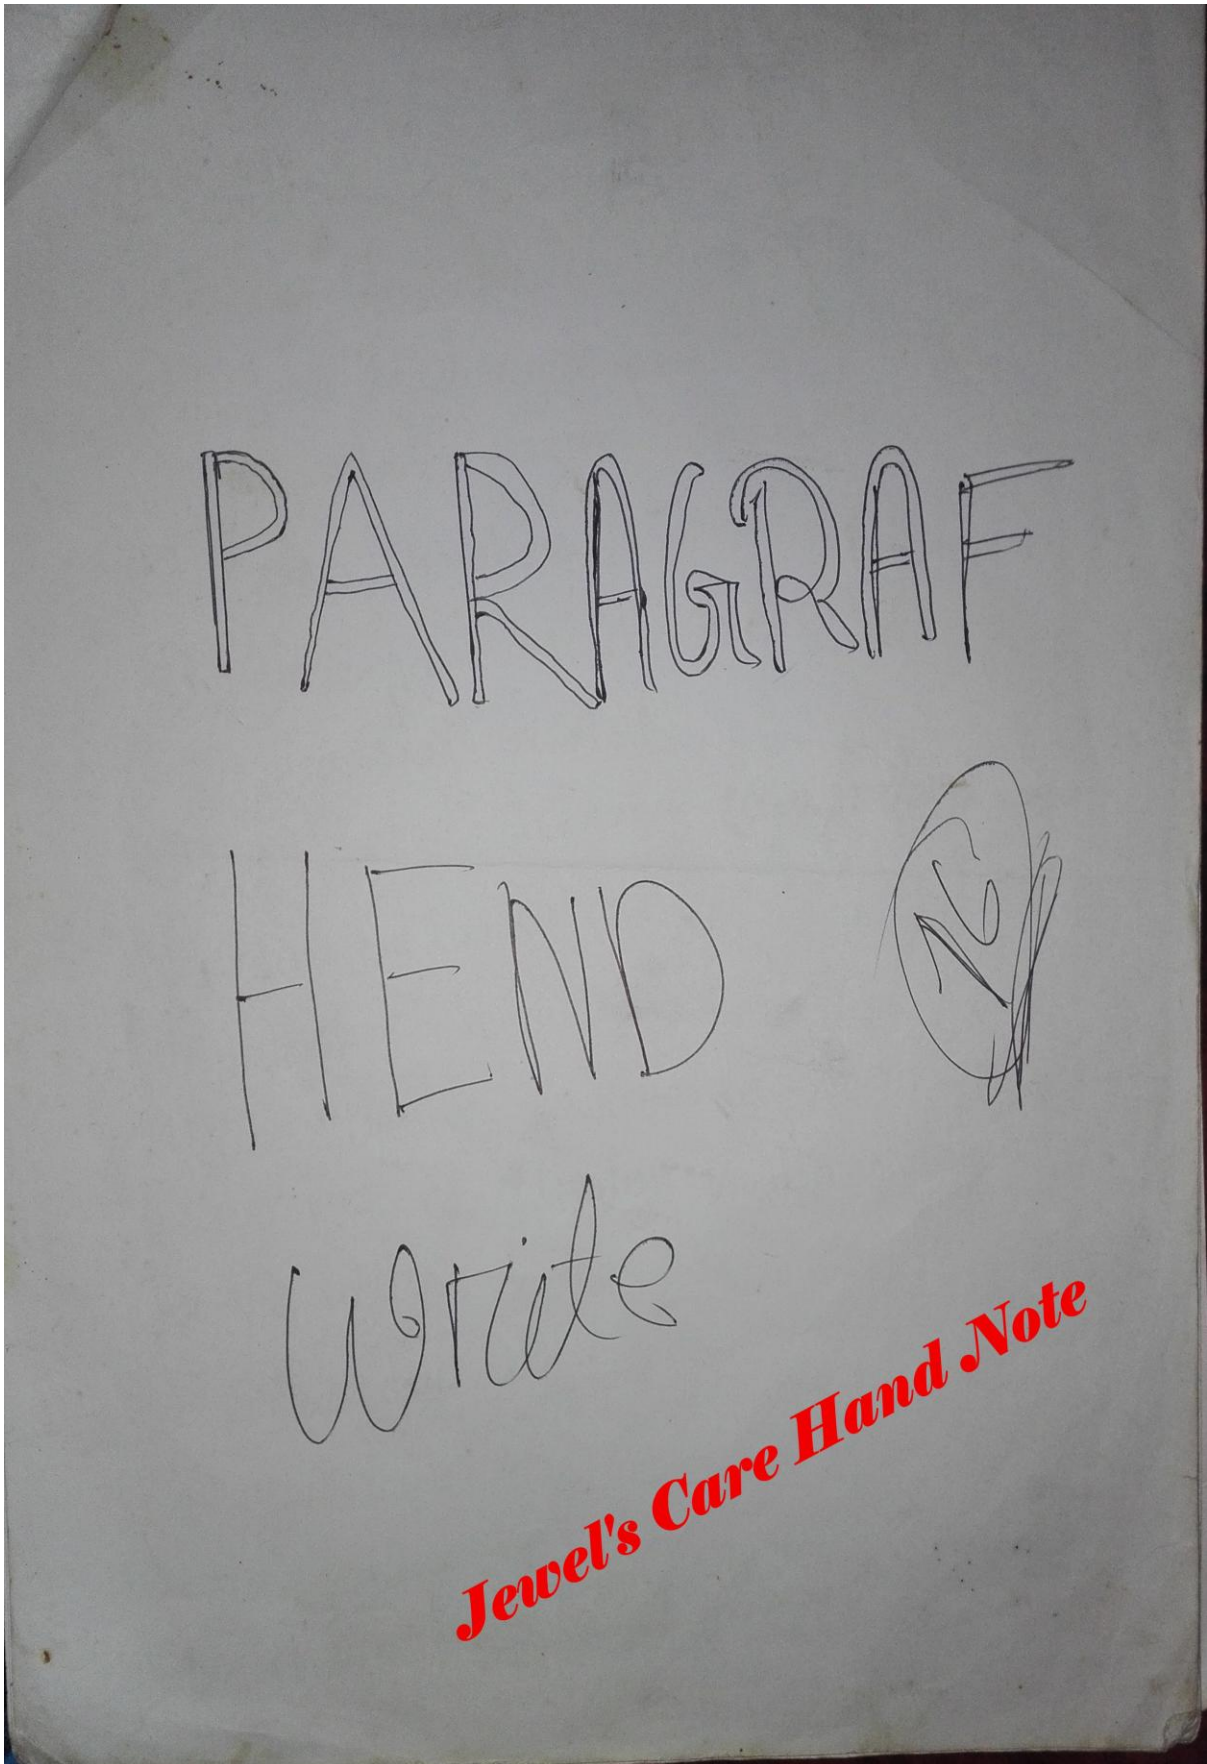

Water is an element in environment. Man can not live without it. At present arsenic contamination ~~drinking~~ drinking is the sever problems of Bangladesh. Arsenic is a very poisonous of white compound of trail element. This element is found out ~~to~~ largely in the tube wells water of 59 districts of our country. By drinking this polluted water many people get affected water with many serious deases like arsenicosis, sores, stomach troubles, gangrain etc. Beacuse it is very poisonous. About 24 millions people of Bangladesh are endangered for it. people should be concains of it. we can get rid through drinking arsenic free water. In regard, deep tubewells are should be set up with a large command area. Immediate steps must be taken by government in order to check this pollution such as - research analysis of source of water, investigation of possibility of alternative sources of safe water, marking the dangerous tubewells and arrangements proper treatment of arsenic patient.

Jewel's Care Hand Note

word-meaning

arsenicosis - ఆర్సెనికా ; affected - ప్రభావితం contamination - దూషణ ; compound - సంకలనం పరిధి ; command - అనుబంధం ; deep tubewells
 - గొర్రె గొట్టం ; trail - దారి ; immediate - సమీపం
 investigation - అధ్యయనం ; regard - సంబంధం ; source - మూలం

PARAGRAPH HEAD-LINE

- ① Junk food. (03 no book)
- ② Pahela baishakh. (own made)
- ③ A good teacher. (01 no book)
- ④ your school magazine. (01 no book)
- ⑤ A street hawker. (01 no book)
- ⑥ Trabbie jam. (01 no book)
- ⑦ A tea stall. (02 no book)
- ⑧ your school library. (own made)
- ⑨ Grameen bank.
- ⑩ Important of radio.
- ⑪ The life of a garment worker.
- ⑫ women's contribution in Bangladesh.
- ⑬ The village doctor. (01 no book)
- ⑭ A rain day. (01 no book)
- ⑮ Our National flag. (01 no book)
- ⑯ Load shedding. (01 no book)
- ⑰ The National memorial. (own made)

Jewel's Care Hand Note

- (18) Early rising. (04 no book)
- (19) The international mother language day. (own)
- (20) A day labourer. (02 no book)
- (21) A rickshaws puller. (04 no book)
- (22) A street bagger. (04 no book)
- (23) A moonlit night. (own made)
- (24) your reading room.
- (25) Debonestation. (04 no book)
- (26) A book fair. (own made)

Jewel's Care Hand Note

Jewel's Care Hand Note

Paragraph no-(01)

Our school magazine

The name of our school is Dolairper high School. Like others we have a school magazine. It is published once in a year. The title of our magazine is "The Light of Dawn". Its get up is very nice. At first a magazine committee is formed in a general meeting for the publication of the magazine. The Headmaster of the school is the president of committee. He inspires us to submit our writing. An English teacher is the adviser. The others members of the committee help him for the publication of the magazine. The magazine contains essays, poems, stories, feature etc both in Bangla and English. It also contains the message of the Headmaster. Mainly student write on this magazine. Some teacher write also for it. All the students of the members of committee do their best duties properly for the publication of the good magazine. It helps us to know about more literature.

P: 2

Paragraph-(05)

A street hawker

Jewel's Care Hand Note

A man who sells various things by moving from street to street is a street hawker. He is a self-employed person. He is the most ~~is~~ familiar figure in the cities and towns. In a village he is also seen. He wears a peculiar dress of different colours and makes peculiar sound to draw ~~at~~ attention of his customers. His work is tiresome. He carries his materials on head, sometimes in a head, sometimes in a bag and sometimes in a small hand cart. He generally buys his goods at a cheaper rate and sells them at a good profit. His articles are mainly attraction to the women and children. He usually sells toys, cosmetics, ready-made garments, sweets, ribbons, bratis etc. Generally in the absence of the housemaster, ~~at~~ he comes to sell his goods. Although he works hard, his life is miserable. All most all the time he leads a subhuman life. A street hawker is the most important people of all the country.

P: 3

Paragraph → (06)

Trabkie Jam

Jewel's Care Hand Note

Trabkie jam is a common abtain in big cities and towns in our country. It is one of the major problems. Everyday the city people have bare this unbearable problem. The density of population is the main cause of trabkie jam. The enormous increase in the number of buses, trucks, autorick-shaws, rickshaws is also responsible for this problem. Moreover, the trabkie control system is not developed in our country. The drivers want to drive their vehicles ~~and~~ at there sweet will. Illegal parking of vehicles is also responsible for trabkie jam. It causes untold subtenings to the movement of the vehicles and passers by. It kills our valuable time and ours worked are hamperd. This problem canbe solved by adopting some ebtective measures. Trabkie rules should be imposed strictly. well planned spacious roads should be constructed. Public awareness is also needed in this respect.

P: 4

Paragraph → (016)

Jewel's Care Hand NoteLoad shedding

Load shedding means the suspension of the supply of electricity for a certain period. It has become a regular affair in our country. Load shedding is caused for different causes. The insufficient production of electricity in our country is the main cause of load shedding. Misuse of electricity is the another cause. Illegal connection of electricity is also responsible for load shedding. On the other hand, government is not sincere to produce electricity in proportion to our demand. So due to load shedding production in mills and factories decreases. Fresh food taken in the refrigerators gets rotten. Load shedding at night encourage the miscreants in their ~~to~~ violent works. It also distracts the study of the students. After all, load shedding affects the economy of our country. So our government should establish more plants and power houses to solve this problem. Illegal connection and system loss should also be stopped.

Jewel's Care Hand Note

Paragraph → (014)

P: 5

A rain day

It is so happens that it rains all day long, we call it a rain day. In such a day, the sky remains cloudy. The sun is not seen at all. The day looks dull and gloomy. Sometimes it rains heavily and sometimes it rains drizzles. Often there are flashes and of lightning and roars of thunder in the sky. Birds are hardly seen to fly. They keep standing on the branches of trees. In such a day, people have to remain indoors. The roads become almost muddy and desolate. One cannot move from one place to another easily. One does not generally come out without compulsion. The poor suffer much. They can not go out to earn their daily bread. It is a great joy to the students. Because classes are not held that day. Some people then spend time in gossiping, playing cards, singing or hearing songs. As a whole a rain day gives us both joy and sorrow. It comes to different classes of people in different ways.

Paragraph → (015)

Our National flag

National flag is the symbol of independence to a nation. Every nation of the world has a national flag of its own. Bangladesh has also a national flag. The proportion of its length and breadth is 10:6. Our national flag is a piece of rectangular green cloth with a round red disc-like patch in length of the flag. The green colour represents the admiration of youthful vigour as well as the green fields and the ever green subtropical forest of Bangladesh. The circle symbolizes the rising sun with new hopes and aspiration of a new nation. The flag is hoisted everyday on top of our important government buildings and educational ins titutions. It is hoisted every where on the independence day and the victory day. Our national flag always inspires us to dedicate our lives for the greater interest of the country. So we proud of it.

Paragraph => (013)

The village doctor

Jewel's Care Hand Note

A village doctor is a familiar figure in the village. He is a private practitioner. Generally he may not be a registered doctor. He receives some training by working under a qualified doctor for some years. He has a dispensary in ^{his} house. He gets up early in the morning. He then attends his patients. He treats his patients very carefully. He gives them advice and medicine. After finishing his duty there, he goes out to see other patients in the villages. Sometimes he spends the whole night sitting beside a patient. He takes small fees from the patient. Very often he gives free.

Treatment to the poor. Really a village doctor is an important figure to the villagers. He is loved and respected by all. He is not only a doctor but also a friend to the villagers.

Paragraph => (01)

Junk food

Jewel's Care Hand Note

Junk food is a kind of food which is eaten by people for its pungent taste, but it has no food value. It is a treat to eat junk food and it looks very appealing, but it does no good for the body. It contains some chemicals to make it tasty. It mainly contains a lot of animal fat and sugar. Foods like chips, burger, crisps, cakes, biscuits etc. are some examples of junk food. There are high in animal fat. Sweets and fizzy drinks like cola and lemonade are high in sugar. Junk food is not good for our health. The animal fats from batty tissues in our body that causes harm to our skin. The sugar in the junk food damages our teeth. junk is wanting in the vitamins and minerals that we need for our health. It does more harm than good.

Jewel's Care Hand Note

Paragraph => (02)

Pahela Baishakh

Bangladesh is a colourful country with festivals and ceremonies. Pahela baishakh the first day of bengali new year is celebrated with much fest, joy by the people of all communities across the country. The day is a public holiday. The shopkeepers and traders open "halkhata" and entertain their customers with sweets. It is age-old tradition of the country. Different socio-cultural organization chalk out different programmes to celebrate the day. The first programmes of the day begins at dawn of Ramna katanul. Chhayamat,

Jewel's Care Hand Note

A leading cultural organization organizes musical programmes. National dailies bring out special supplements and Bangladesh Water and B.T.V. and other T.V channels telecast special programmes. In this day, different kind of people carry different costumes, play cards, posters, banners and wear masks to welcome the day. Moreover, Bangla academy, shilpokala academy, liberation war museum, National museum and jatiya press club organize cultural function on the kaishakh day. A good many people wearing traditional dresses attend to enjoy the programmes. In small towns and villages the pahela kaishakh has special attraction. Fairs are held in every city and corner of the country. Folk music, tradition dance, "Nagon dola" add the charm of the fair. At last, the pahela kaishakh day is finished with much very happily and peace, bull and jest.

Paragraph => (07)

A tea stall

A tea stall is a common sight in our country. It is found in cities, towns, bazars, railway stations, bus stations and even in a village. It is a small shop. In a tea stall there are few chairs, tables or benches. Prepared tea is sold here. There is often a boy or two to serve tea to the customers. The manager sits behind the cash box and collects money from the customers. An ordinary tea stall is dirty. A tea stall opens in the morning and closes late at night. A tea stall is a popular place of our country. People of different ages and classes come here. They take tea and talk with one another. They discuss on various subjects. They also talk on village politics, national and international politics and on current affairs. Sometimes customers raise a storm over a cup of tea. A tea stall is an important place of social gathering indeed.

Paragraph => (08)

A school library

A library is a very important part of an ideal school. An expert librarian remains in charge of a library. He issues the ~~amog~~ among the students. There is a catalogue of books in a library. Books are issued on a birthday in every week. A student takes the choicible book and returns that after his reading. The usefulness of a school library is very great in the liking of the students. A number of people who do not study book - is like in a narrow well. A student can enrich his knowledge by reading book. It helps to acquire vast knowledge.

(not abused)

Paragraph ⇒ (03)

P: 13

A good teacher

A man or woman who teaches the students in any educational institution is called a teacher. A teacher, specially a good or an ideal teacher, is one of the most important people of a country. He is a valuable asset to any country. He is the architect of a nation. A good teacher is a friend, philosopher and guide to the students. He makes lesson interesting to them. He awakens the students and he learn new things. He makes them confident and proves them clever. He advise always learn new things. He also want them happy. He keeps them busy at school and at home. His general nature is also good. So, a good teacher should have necessary qualification and professional training.

Jewel's Care Hand Note

Paragraph no => (19)

2.14

The international mother language day

The 21st February is a red-letter day in our national and International life. For our nation, it is a day of great historical importance. This is a greatly important for everyone of us ^{because} of its significant historical background. On this day of 1952, our great language movement took place. This day reminds us of the struggle. Many ^{freedom} ~~brave~~ ^{fighters} children of our country laid down their lives and defended our mother tongue in ^{Bangla} exchange their blood. This day has given us the freedom to speak in our Mother tongue. Salam, Barkat, Rabique, Shabique and many others were the heroes of this day. Their sacrifice and struggle have now brought international recognitions for our nation as well as for our "Bangla Bhasa". Now this day is celebrated throughout the whole world. People of the whole world observe this day as an international Mother language day.

Paragraph no \Rightarrow (26)

2:15

A book fair

A book fair is an attractive fair where different types of books are displayed and sold.

Now days it has become very popular. I was very lucky to visit the Ekushey Bai Mela this year.

Every year the fair is held on the occasion of 21st February to remind us the struggle of language movement.

It has created a sense of interest for books among the general mass. In a book fair a hundreds of pavillions are set up. All sorts of books - functions, text books, dramas, children books, reference books etc are displayed and sold. There are also food and drink stalls.

A book fair becomes crowded specially in the evening. Both male and female customers gather a book fair.

The writers also visit the fair regularly. Seminars and cultural programmes are also held. A book fair reminds us that books are our best companions. They are always at our side when we are in denger. They change our out look on life and widen are domain of knowledge. It is books which helps us to forget jealousy, malice and superstition. Again we get these best friends at a cheaper rate from a book fair. I was very delighted visiting such a fair and gathered some new experience there.

2:16

Paraph. no => (18)

Early rising

Early rising means the habit of getting up from bed early in the morning. This habit is very usefal to a man in various ways. Regarding it there is an english proverb that: "Early to bed and early to rise makes ~~am~~ a man healthy, wealthy and wise." Really this proverb is correct. An early risen finds time to take some exercise on a walk in the morning. The morning air refreshes both body and mind. This certainly improves his health and gives him energy for the day's work. This habit also enables a man to begin his day's work early. He gets plenty of time to perform his duties and hence he becomes wealthy. The habit gives him an opportunity to enjoy the beauties of nature. He is inspired to think over the wonderful creation of God. This makes him wise. So, we should form the habit of early rising for the happiness and prosperity of our life.

Jewel's Care Hand Note

78

Paragraph no -> (08)

Our school library

A library is a collection of books for reading or borrowing. Every school has a library. Our school has also a library. It is a part and parcel of our school life. It is situated on the first floor in our school building. As a result, a huge amount of air can enter into the library. There are various types of books, in our school library. They are also many in number. The librarians of the library is very dutiful. He maintains the library properly. He always follows the discipline of it. The librarian does his duty regularly and sincerely. Our school library is very helpful to both students and teachers. If a student fails to understand any topics of his text books. He can easily solve it in the school library. He can also prepare better notes for his subjects by taking help of different books. Besides the students also acquire knowledge about many other things of national and international by reading books in the library. School library is very useful to the poor students. The library is also necessary for the teachers. It helps them to prepare themselves for teaching. So, our school library is very useful to both students and teachers.

Paragraph => (20)

A day labourer

Jewel's Care Hand Note

A day labourer is he who does heavy manual labour in various fields. He is quite known to all. He is to be healthy, strong and stout. He lives with his family in a slum. He gets up early in the morning and goes out in search of work. He works hard from dawn to dusk for his employer and gets his wages at evening. Then he goes to market, buys his daily necessary and returns to his slum. He is always dependent on his employer. When he gets more work, he earns more and then he and the members of his family eat with their hearts content. Sometimes ^{they} he and his family go without food if he can not manage work. However, he is in great demand in harvesting season. The life of a day labourer is full of sorrows and sufferings. He can hardly enjoy peace and happiness. In all weathers - good and bad, he works hard all day long and earns his livelihood by the sweat of

